EXECUTIVE PANEL MEETINGS

This week the Executive Panel of the Conservative Grace Brethren Churches will be meeting from Oct. 20-22 at the Laurelville Retreat Center near Mt. Pleasant, PA, for the first of our national planning conferences for this year. Pastor Reese, who was elected this July as National Conference Vice President, will in attendance. At this meeting, we will be planning next year's Conference and discussing national Fellowship business in general. Laurelville is a beautiful and peaceful rural Mennonite-operated facility—and will be the site of next year's CGBCI National Conference! The great thing is that being only an hour from Johnstown, this location will give our families at Armagh the blessed opportunity to attend at least one or more sessions.

Pray for traveler's mercies for the men—Pastor Reese will be picking up Pastor Libby (flying in from Irasburg, Vermont) at the Johnstown Airport on Monday.
